

Magical Memories By Scrapdolly

Week 8

The Ultimate Magical Moment

The prompts this time are the same whether you are doing the Disney album or another vacation album.

This album class has been called Magical Moments – and that is just what we are going to focus on this week. That one stand out magical moment.

Whenever you go on a vacation of any sort there are always stand out moments. Those stand out moments may be something quite spectacular – perhaps they were a part of the holiday you were really looking forward to. Perhaps it was the very reason you went on that vacation. Equally a stand out moment could be something totally unexpected and seemingly quite small.

Sit down, with your holiday photos, and your journal if you have one, at the ready in case you need them to kick start the process and think about the standout moments you had on the holiday. When you sit and think of the holiday what are some of the first things that come to mind? Maybe you had a special day out during the trip. Maybe you had booked an excursion or an event such as a trip in a helicopter or a special character dining experience.

Perhaps your stand out moment involved the pleasure of seeing another member of your family hit a real high moment. In the case of a Disney album it might be the first time your little one met their favourite character. How did they feel and how did it make you feel? On our trip to California last year we went to an Angels baseball game. Now whilst I like a good game I am no baseball addict and the Angel are not my favourite team. But my husband has been an Angels fan for 25 years and this was the first time he saw them play live. That night is one of my stand out memories as I couldn't take my eyes off him He was so excited it was like he was lit up from inside. And if I were making my album of that trip it would be that moment I would pick.

Perhaps your stand out moment was a complete accident – a place you never meant to go, a show you never meant to see, a meal you never planned to have.

If you need a kick start, browse through your photos and your holiday journal for inspiration.

If you are saving these prompts for a holiday you are yet to take, use this as your opportunity to take pictures of things that will work with this. Take pictures of reactions; capture the expressions on people's faces.

You could even take a whole fantasy tack with this page and write about your ultimate fantasy magical moment. Maybe it was when, watching the parade, you were invited to join Cinderella in her coach. Maybe it was when, taking that helicopter trip, you helped pilot the plane. Maybe, in the case of my DH and his baseball game, he was invited down to pitch with his time.

And finally, use what we did in prompt 6 and if your magical moment involved other people as well, get them to give their reactions to it as well.
